

I am appalled that Sinclair Corporation is being allowed to air anti-Kerry propaganda so close to the election without being challenged. If they are going to air "Stolen Honor," they should give equal time to "Going Upriver", in order to present a balanced picture of Senator Kerry.

Public airways should be used for the public good, not to serve the narrow interests of a corporation.